Born and raised in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, Amy Heebner learned to play the carillon at Middlebury College, where she was President of the Middlebury Carillonneurs. She graduated with a Bachelor of Arts from Middlebury College and received her Master's in Library Science from the University at Albany. She is a librarian at the New York State Library.

Amy is currently one of two city carillonneurs in Albany, and she is the organist at the Unionville Reformed Church. She is a board member, president, and one of the founders of the Friends of the Albany City Carillon. In addition to her weekly performances for the city, she also plays at special city events. She has given concerts at various carillons in New York and New England. Amy became a carillonneur member of the Guild of Carillonneurs of North America in 2000.

In her free time, Amy rows on the Hudson River with the Albany Rowing Center, plays badminton and softball, and skis downhill and cross country.
