

SPRING CARILLON FESTIVAL 1996

Friday, April 26

5:00 p.m. Carillon Recital
Tin-shi Tam, ISU Carillonneur

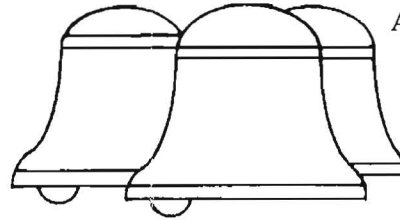

Margo Halsted has been the University Carillonneur and Assistant Professor of Campanology at the University of Michigan School of Music since September 1987. For the years 1977-87 she was Lecturer in Music and Carillonneur at the University of California Riverside. Her degrees are from Stanford University in Music and Education and the University of California, Riverside, in Music. In 1981 she earned a diploma from the Netherlands Carillon School.

Saturday, April 27

2:00 p.m. Seminar
"The Carillon of Yesterday and Today"
Margo Halsted, guest carillonneur
Music Hall, Room 130

As a carillon recitalist, Halsted has performed extensively in the United States and Europe. Interested in early carillon music, she has discovered, researched and published articles on two historic manuscripts from Antwerp, and she is currently working on publishing some of the oldest carillon music found to date. Five of her carillon compositions have been published.

3:00 p.m. Carillon Recital
Margo Halsted, guest carillonneur

4:00 p.m. Campanile Tour

Margo Halsted is an active participant in the Guild of Carillonneurs in North America. She has been the consultant for five chime and carillon installations. In 1995, the GCNA presented her with a certificate for "Exceptional Service."

Halsted was awarded the Berkeley Medal from the University of California, Berkeley, is an Honorary Member of the Belgian Carillon School and is listed in Who's Who in American Music.

Sunday, April 28

2:00 p.m. Family Concert
Ames Children's Choir - Sylvia Munsen, founder/artistic director
ISU Dance Tour Company - Janice Baker, director
ISU student carillonneurs

Ames Children's Choir was founded in September, 1995 by Sylvia Munsen, ISU Assistant Professor of Music Education. The choir is comprised of 35 boys and girls ages 10-14 from the greater Ames area. The choir program focuses on the development of self-esteem through artistic experience including correct vocal technique, music literacy and expressive singing.

ISU Dance Tour Company, under the direction of Janice Baker, provides dance experiences to public education and schools. The Company joins forces with the talented and gifted program of the Danceplace to bring the improvisational studies to life.

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY
Department of Music

Spring Carillon Festival

featuring

TAM Tin-shi
Faculty Recital Series

Friday, April 26, 1996
Stanton Memorial Carillon, 5:00 pm

Program

Festival Tocatta in D minor James R. Tener

Introduction and Sicilienne Ronald Barnes

Interfusions Jeffrey Prater

Tree Modes Amy Michelle Black
Flowering Japanese Quince
Weeping Willow
Southern Magnolia

Four Intermezzi Leen 't Hart

Impromptu Ferdinand Timmermans

Suite d'Ukraine pour le monde Stéfano Colletti
Lobier rouge
Soleil couchant
La lune et les étoiles
La jolie jeune fille
Dans le petit bois, au bord du Danube

One hundred and fifty-third concert, 1995-1996

