Carillon students to perform Oct. 16 in Sukup Hall

By Erin Rosacker
October 15, 2020

Eight students will perform during a 20-minute carillon concert in the Sukup Hall atrium on Friday, Oct. 16, at 12:30 p.m. They will perform on the one-fifth scale campanile and carillon portable model designed and created over the last five years by students in cross-disciplinary courses.

The concert, part of their coursework for the class taught by university carillonneur and Cownie Professor of Music Tin-Shi Tam, will be livestreamed on Facebook. Spectators are welcome to attend within capacity limits; Cyclones Care protocols for face coverings and physical distancing are required. Another concert is planned for Friday, Nov. 13 (12:30 p.m.).

Carillon concert program

The students, and the music they'll play, are:

Cavannah Yap, senior, genetics
  • "Intermezzo," Herman Dreher

Carolyn Riedel, graduate student, aerospace engineering
  • "Sarabande," Francis Poulenc

Brian Kempa, graduate student, aerospace engineering
  • "Clock Music, Set II, No. 1," G. F. Handel

Rebekah Veldboom, freshman, environmental science
  • "Clock Music, Set II, No. 4," G. F. Handel

Megan Goodhue, junior, public relations
  • "Simple Gifts," Joseph Brackett

Macklin Derscheid, senior, music
  • "Nuka-World" theme from "Fallout 4," Inon Zur

Annemarie Lemme (flute) and Ola Carnahan (carillon), seniors, aerospace engineering
  • "New World Symphony" theme, Antonín Dvořák
  • Medley: "You're a Grand Old Flag," "Yankee Doodle Dandy," "Give My Regards to Broadway," George M. Cohan
Arts and events

Student concert is Oct. 16 in Sukup Hall
Student musicians will perform on the campanile/carillon model.